NEW BUSINESS

1. Tyler reported that Mike Fletcher had 36 kids in 3 class's of golf lessons. Had 38 couples on Friday night. Christine is offering an Sunday Brunch from 8:00 to 11:00 Am. $9.75 for adults and $7.75 for kids. Things look good for this Summer.
2. Mike McNay said it got HOT and they have put down 4½ million gallons of water to keep up. Aeration work on all of the Greens and Fairways is helping to keep the water where it is needed, the roots. With the new clocks he can put how many inches needed to keep grass green not time. Will start reworking ditch across Hole #1 this fall; have clean it out for better water flow for now. The Cotton Woods that were damage due to high winds will be taken down.
3. Bob Mealy ask about the roofs on the 3 buildings on the Golf Course (#1 fairway, large pump shed & ball shed). Will see if the city can help with them this Fall or Winter. They are in bad shape!

OLD BUSINESS

1. Jan reported that some of the stones have been moved.
2. Bonnie Lawson said Thank you to Tyler and Claud for the bench on #11 for her grandson. Also do we need a release on the bench's. Jan reported that bench's for #14 (Marty) and #15 Jan's grandson will be set this week. The Recycle cans money is going for a bench for #18 to honor the Volunteers for Coyote Creek Golf Course. Jan is looking into the Ladies League buying a bench.

3. Restroom on #14 the water dept. is checking the pressure.
