It contains too much salt and low on nitrates. He reported we need new lighting and poles around the fields. The pool party room has been painted, and new tile on the floor. Some new exercise equipment has been ordered. The old pieces are being sold. Mens basketball season is over. Soccer and baseball are both in full swing. Yoga classes are starting with Pam as the coach. She was a popular instructor with full classes when she taught here previously.

A new van has been ordered for senior use. It is a 15 passenger, will be delivered in the fall. Day camp is full with a waiting list.

The pool is training lifeguards. We may have to close the pool for some slow hours, because we are so short of lifeguards. If you are interested, early morning and early afternoon hours need lifeguard coverage.
